U.S. Senators Amy Klobuchar and Tina Smith Endorse State Auditor Julie Blaha

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Minnesota U.S. Senators Amy Klobuchar and Tina Smith have endorsed State Auditor Julie Blue for reelection.

Senator Klobuchar urged Minnesotans to join her in supporting Auditor Blaha’s reelection.

“When abortion, climate change and justice are all on the line, we need an auditor we can trust to tell the truth,” Senator Klobuchar said.

Senator Smith said she’s grateful for all the work Auditor Blaha has done for Minnesota.

“Over the last four years I’ve watched Julie work to protect local government’s freedom to make their own decisions,” Senator Smith said. “Minnesotans are lucky to have Julie Blaha in the State Auditor’s office — someone who puts political agendas to the side and not only listens to people, but trusts that they know the best way to serve their communities.”

Auditor Blaha said “I’m humbled to be endorsed by both of our U.S. Senators. They’ve spent their entire careers fighting for Minnesota and our state is better for it.”
